

HELLENIC-ROMANIAN
BILATERAL CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

Camera de Comerț și Industrie Bilaterală

România - Cipru

Dear Friends

We have the pleasure to invite you to a seminar in relation to

RECENT AND EXPECTED TAX CHANGES IN ROMANIA AND GREECE

The seminar will address important tax issues, focusing on the Implementation of Automatic Exchange of Information by banks and other financial institutions

9th of March 2017, 16:00, Red Meeting Room – BOC Building, 3 George Constantinescu
Street, Entrance B, Bucharest

The event has been organized jointly by the Hellenic Romanian Bilateral Chamber of Commerce and the Romania – Cyprus Bilateral Chamber Of Commerce and Industry, in collaboration with Baker Tilly, Romania, to discuss:

- Changes and amendments in the Romanian Fiscal Code as from 1 January 2017
- Changes in the Romanian and international tax scene make substance an important element of operating internationally
- Impact of the changes on the regulations on substance on the tax residence of shareholders, directors, administrators and executives of multi-national entities

You are kindly invited for a light cocktail after the presentation. For more information, please find attached the Agenda.

Please confirm your attendance by email: info@bakertilly.ro or telephone +40 21 3156100 by 6th of March 2017 at the latest.

Sponsor:

BAKER TILLY

